QUILT CHATTER

Vol. 30 Issue 7

www.riverquilters.org

(Meetings on 2nd Monday)

July 2019

Greetings Quilter,

I trust this finds you well. Summer has arrived, the flood waters are still up and it is a good time to stay out of the heat and ... well, duh- QUILT! I am a total housecat when it gets hot outside. I like projects where I don't get overheated! Scrapping out a quilt top is perfect for me. You?

How about that River Quilter Auction?! A ton of stuff to be had! We cleaned it up pretty good! I brought all my purchases home and put it away- don't tell Richie but I have a lot more quilt paraphernalia than I realized! I had to refold, restore and shuffle some yardage to get it to fit. Good thing Lisa introduced me to the magazine boards to wrap yardage on. It is decorative and space saving- and I love both of those features. I have 100 cards that are full of at least one yard- I think I have a problem! I will bet you aren't like that at all!

By the time you read this Richie and I will have our first granddaughter. I don't foresee a lot of productivity in my near future! I can't wait to see if TacoBella has red hair for all the spicy foods her mama has craved the last 8 months!

I best get back to piecing, I made myself a stack so that I stay on task- How do you keep on task? My inquiring mind wants to know!

Keep on Stitchin On,

Kelly
