

No Meeting in June

President's Message

Hello quilters,

Spring is almost over and summer will be here soon! For many of us, our sewing time decreases at this time of year, as we devote more of our time to our vegetable gardens, our lawns, our flowers, and other outdoor hobbies and chores. My husband and I live on the family farm that his parents purchased in 1973. We bought it several years ago, and moved here from Cape 3 1/2 years ago. It's a hobby farm, with black angus cows, honey bees, dominique chickens, and three dogs. We're anxiously awaiting our first brown eggs! We spent our month at home doing many outside chores. My favorite activity in the spring and summer is planting/tending flowers. I was glad that I had flower seeds left from last year since we were not going to the stores. So now you know a little more about me, other than the fact that I am a quilter like you! My perennials are beginning to bloom, and guess which light purple flower made me smile today. A pincushion flower!

Are you taking part in my community quilts challenge? If you'd like a smaller servant project, Marla Moore has requested fidget quilts. You can contact her for details.

Take care of yourselves and your families,

Christine Childers

Deepest sympathy to the family of Joycelyn Kasten. Joycelyn passed away on May 21, 2020 after suffering a stroke on the 17th. Joycelyn was a past president of RHQG, a lovely woman, loved by all who knew her, and she loved all she knew. A beautiful lady, both inside and out.

CHRISTINE'S COMMUNITY PROJECTS

CHALLENGE

Deanna Easley reported that RHQG's Community Projects made the following donations in 2019: 4 quilts to Lutheran Family and Children Services, 5 to Birthright, 5 to Building Blocks, 5 quilts & 7 tote bags to the Women's SafeHouse, 38 pillow cases to SE Hospital pediatric unit, and 4 Christmas quilts to sell at the Notre Dame craft fair.

I am challenging our guild to surpass last year's total of 23 quilts! Can we donate 30 quilts this year? There are already over a dozen quilt tops ready to be quilted. It's the year 2020. $20 + 20 = 40$. Could we donate 40 quilts this year?

Quilt Show 2020

Cancelling the Quilt Show was a very difficult decision made by your Executive Board. Yes, hopefully, we will be over all that is going on. The question is, are folks going to want to come to a quilt show with lots of other people, or stay away? We lost money on the last quilt show because of low attendance, we can't afford to put on a show and have very low attendance. It is a lot of work and a lot of money to put out. The next quilt show has been rescheduled to Oct 1-2, 2022.

Quilt Show Registrar Note

By now, most of you have heard that the 2020 show has been canceled. There were nearly 30 quilts entered at this point. Barb Narsh, as Treasurer, is refunding the entry fees that have been processed. These will be arriving, by mail, within the next two weeks. All quilters involved have been notified by email.

As you know, we normally do not accept quilts that have been completed more than two years prior to the show. But, please know that all quilts finished after September, 2018 will be eligible for the next RHQG show.

A big thank you to everyone that entered or was preparing an entry for this fall. And, keep on sewing!!!

Respectfully,

Barb Egbert
Quilt Show Registrar
