No Meeting in November

President's Message

I know you love quilts. Do you like paging through quilting magazines? I sure do! They can be a great source of inspiration. When I look at lots and lots of quilts, I feel like I am in a candy store! If you are new to the art of quilting, or if you haven't worked with fabric shapes, other than squares and rectangles, you can learn from quilting magazines, too. I've enjoyed the Fons & Porter Love of Quilting magazine because it has a teaching page that features different sewing techniques along with directions and photos. Who wouldn't want to learn how to make eight half-square triangles at a time instead of making them one by one? Although, yes, there is a beauty in doing things the way our grandmas used to. I hand-pieced an 8-inch block years ago and it took me eight hours to finish it! I'm glad to have experienced that process but I don't plan to do it again.

In addition to reading quilting magazines, I also enjoy reading fictional books that involve quilting. I know that some of you enjoy reading the quilting novels by Ann Hazelwood. In a prior newsletter I mentioned reading Jennifer Chiaverini's Elm Creek Quilts novels. I'm currently hooked on Amish novels. I find them to be good, clean books. I read about Amish women will have quilting frolics. The books often tell of quilts being auctioned off at their mud sale. The closest I've come to a quilting frolic was when Debbie, Jane and I were rushing to finish a quilt for our Pastor. Finishing the binding was all that we had left to do. We all went to Debbie's house and Nancy came over, too. We spread the quilt out on her dining room table and all started binding. We got it done rather quickly and had fun visiting while sewing. What a great memory that always makes me smile.

QUILTS OF VALOR GUIDELINES
for Presentation by River Heritage Quilt Guild -2020

All quilts presented through the guild must abide by the guidelines of the Quilts of Valor Foundation and the River Heritage Quilt Guild respectively, to be eligible for registration and presentation as a Quilt of Valor.

Any individual or groups, members or nonmembers of RHQG can make qualifying Quilts of Valor (QOV) to be presented throughout the year or ONE QOV at the designated RHQG presentation meeting as scheduled by the presiding board.

Quilt presentations made throughout the year may also be announced at the November meeting with the quilt-makers' and the recipient's information.

A maximum of ten quilts will be presented at the November 2020 meeting on a first come, first serve basis for qualifying quilts only. Between June 1, 2020 and October 12, 2020 quilt tops or completed quilts must be approved in person by a QOV committee member (Mary Green, Donna Irwin, Karla Kiefner). Quiltmakers must agree to abide by all the QOV and RHQG guidelines for finished quilts.

Each quilt must be made according to these standards to be presented/recognized through RHQG:

1. The quilts must be made of 100% cotton, adult appropriate fabric. NO metallic fabrics are allowed on a QOV.
2. The minimum completed size allowed is 55 by 65 inches. The maximum size is 72 by 90 inches. The recommended size is 60 by 80 inches.
3. Backing should be 100% cotton. No sheets are allowed. (The backing should be 6 inches wider and longer than the top if taken to professional long-arm quilter.)
4. The batting should be a low-loft quality batting (Cotton, 80/20 or ply from Pellon, Warm Company, Quilter's Dream or Hobbs).
5. Binding should be double-fold, straight, or bias cut, and joined with diagonal piecing. Apply binding to the front of the quilt by machine, then turn the binding to the back and hand stitch. No machine turned bindings allowed.
6. Some recommended patterns are available on the RHQG Quilt of Valor page or you may choose from designs on the QOV organization's pattern page, Pinterest, or any appropriate pattern of your choice or you may design your own pattern. No rag quilts or flag replicas are allowed.
7. Quilting should be hand (5 to 7 stitches per inch) or machine (8 to 12 stitches per inch), uniform size, free hand, pantograph, or computer-guided patriotic or general designs. No tied, only stitched in the ditch, or giant meandering quilting is allowed.
8. Each QOV requires a label to be sewn on the back. A free RHQG (optional) can be supplied after the quilt is approved. (If applying label prior to quilting, check with your quilter for their guidelines regarding the placement of the label.)
9. Quilt-maker must wash the quilt prior to presentation, using Color Catchers. Avoid scented products. Do not present a quilt covered in pet hair or smelling of tobacco smoke.
10. QOV shall not have pet hair on them or smell of tobacco smoke.
11. Registration and presentation of quilt top must be completed by October 12, 2020 to be eligible for presentation in November.

Note: No registration will be accepted for quilt presentation

a) after the maximum of ten have been accepted.

b) after October 12, 2020

c) if quilt does not meet size, fabric, label, washing instruction, pillowcase, and other requirements.

Dear Quilt Guild Friends,

Greetings, all of you busy bees! Here is the link to the Block-of-the-Month Mystery Quilt, River Heritage, instructions: <https://www.pinterest.com/creativebeestudios/river-heritage-free-block-of-the-month-quilt/>

This is a board on my Pinterest page. The River Heritage board on our guild's Pinterest page has apparently been removed (as has my "guild speaker" board). These instruction links were meant to remain available to everyone. I know some of you have been finishing up your River Heritage quilts and I thought others might want to start the quilt or have access to the blocks at any time. There are also some technique pins on the board for guidance. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions! 573-579-2711 Enjoy your quilting journey, Karla Kiefner

Karla Kiefner 573-579-2711

I need to sell some of my cotton, wool, wool kits, and some misc. fabric and books, patterns, baskets, Fabric is $4.00 a yard, $2.00 half yard and $1.00 for a fat quarter. If anyone is interested just give me a call 573-270-5329 and I will give directions. It is in my Studio next to my house. Thank You, Nancy Pleimann.

NOTICE-There will be no Opportunity Quilt in 2020. The quilt will be saved for 2021.
