From Our President...

Hi all-

If you didn't make it to the picnic, you missed a lot of fun. Granted, it was cold and windy, but those of us that braved the weather had a great time. Merle even brought a pot of soup. Pat took a lot of great pictures; be sure and check out the site where we store them.

Another busy month for me. I did finish putting the binding on a quilt that I started in a class with Barb Bolesta. It is pretty wild and crazy, not what I usually do, so I decided to give it to my first grandchild graduating from High School. She will love it. I am getting really close to starting the black/white/hot pink quilt that I have been wanting to do.

Hope Joan Meyer and her husband have recovered after having a run in with a bull out in my part of the county.

I am off to Jeff City next month for the MSQG board meeting. We are hoping to move the fall retreat to Jeff City from Lake of the Ozarks. While the hotel at Lake of the Ozarks has been great, the move to Jeff City will give us a change, a newer facility and just a new look. The retreat this year is Oct 15, 16, 17. Plan on attending. It is always a great time, classes are good, company is good, vendors are good; what more can you ask for?

Keep quilting

Madeline

RHQG Meeting Seconds (brief note instead of the normal minutes)

I really don't have a report, as we did not have a meeting- only a freezing, happy picnic with 22 crazy members and 1 unsuspecting guest. Thanks - Carol G

Quilt Show 2010 Report by Madeline

We are four months away from our 8th quilt show. The dates are September 25 and 26, 2010 at the Arena Building. The theme is Seasons. All of the rules and regulations are on the website. We will need all of you to sign up for at least one committee.

Caroline Tilghman-Hostesses

Sally Miller-Publicity and Door Prizes

Merle Deneke-Vendors

Martha Cox-Set Up

Glenda Nations-Food

Mary K Reed-Registration

Linda Tansil-Mini Quilt Auction

We still need someone to take charge of take down. We also need someone to narrate the bed turning.

This year we have decided to involve everyone in the guild by doing a bed turning using guild member's quilts. If you would like to share your quilt(s), we will need a paragraph about the quilt. These will be put together, the quilts stacked in the proper order and then shown. We thought it would be a more personal approach and the visitors to the show seem to enjoy the bed turning.

We would appreciate any men/boys that would be able to help with set up and take down. We will also need two pickup trucks, besides Madeline's.

It is time to be finishing up your quilts, especially if you need to take it somewhere to be quilted. The mini's for the breast cancer auction can be turned into Linda Tansil at any time.

If you have any questions, please contact Madeline or any of the above committee chairs.

Editor's Note: Your contribution to the mini quilt auction can be an orphan block that you that you add a border(s) and quilt, or some other small item. Last year we had some purses, and pillowcases, for example.

* Raspberry Spread

* 2 Cups (16 oz.) Real Mayonnaise (jar size is actually 15 oz.)

* 2 Cups Regular Shredded Mozzarella

* 2 Cups Regular Shredded Mild Cheddar Cheese

* 1 Bunch Green Onions chopped fine (I use about 2/3's of the bunch)

* 1 Small Bag Crushed Pecans

* 1 Small Jar Seedless Red Raspberry Jam (I use Smucker's)

* Your favorite Crackers

* Combine mayo, cheeses, and green onions.

* Place crushed pecans in the bottom of a pie plate and then put the cheese mixture on top of the pecans. Let that set overnight in the refrigerator.

* Put a plate on the top of the pie plate and invert it for the mixture to come out onto the plate and then spread the jam on top of the nuts. It does come out of the pie plate very easily--no cooking spray needed. Obviously this is not low-fat/low calorie but is delicious.

* Serve with Crackers. Darla Snider

* Community Projects — You can help at home!

* Of course it is the most fun to join the group at Nancy's house, but some of us are not free during the day. Let Nancy or someone on the committee know, and you can take home a sack. They will give you a sack with the top, batting, backing, and maybe the binding. You can finish the quilt

* The quilt may be tied, machine tacked, hand or machine quilted or any combination.

* Whatever you do must be no more than four inches apart.

* Some will come with binding, some may not.

* Please try to finish the quilt by the next meeting.

* If you have any questions please call Nancy East.
