About Our President ... and some others

Our President went to Joplin to help put libraries back together after their horrific tornado this spring. Due to her inability to send a letter, here's a tribute to her and others.

People often say when asked to serve, "I am too busy". Vickie Howard is one of the busiest people you know. Until recently she worked at Cape Middle School Library. She involved a group of young people in making crafty things for others. She served as our president, and invited many people into her home to make Little Dresses for Africa, and has made many herself. She has allowed many quilters to come use her long arm quilt machine to quilt their own quilts, and she has quilted many of the Community Project quilts. She provided all the quilts for our the bed-turning at our last quilt show. She has made other trips to Joplin to help their libraries after the storm. She is the reason the newsletter has volunteer quotes — she wanted volunteerism to be her theme, and requested that every issue this year included the quotes. She has made many pillowcases for sick children, and cool collars for soldiers. The list could go on.

People sometimes say "I served as an officer / served on a committee once and have done my part". Most of the people now serving as officers have been an officer or a chair of a committee many times. Madeline has been President more than once, chaired the quilt show, and edited the newsletter. Merle has been President, managed the Vendors at the quilt show, and taken on the task of managing the opportunity quilt tickets. Sally Miller has done the Year-book for years, is currently our co-VP, edited the newsletter, chaired committees for the show. Nancy East and her committee make a volume of quilts for others that appears super-human. Darla Snider has been President, chaired various committees, organized the breast cancer pillow and local pillowcase making efforts, and much more. Not everyone has a title that serves. Nola Koch has helped with Membership for years. Velda Keister made 31 cool collars last month after I sent out the call for collars, Darla made 12 and Vickie 15. 100 soldiers in Afghanistan have cool collars due to our guild. I could fill three newsletters with what they and other guild members do. There are so many people I did not have room to mention.

Some people do have illness in the family that prevents them from serving, or suffer their own ill health. But, if you are able, consider getting more involved in the guild.

Quilt Tour 2011

The Glenn House, Oliver House and Cape River Heritage Museum will be hosting tours on Sept. 24 and 25. Quilts will be displayed at the above mentioned locations. Bonnie Chaudoir asked me if I could round up some quilts for the Glenn House. There is no theme this time and any size quilt or wallhanging is welcomed. It is being called A Potpourri of Quilts. They need to have the quilts on Sept. 19. That is one week after our September meeting. I can pick up quilts at that meeting or if you can't be there, give me a call and we can arrange for you to bring them by my home. Due to my husband's illness, I cannot come to your homes and pick them up. If you think you could lend a quilt for the occasion, please let me know. If you have already responded, there's no need to call or email. All quilts will be insured while at the Glenn House. Quilts will need labels so I can get them back to the correct owners. If you can attach a card or small sheet of paper with the following information, it will be appreciated:

Name of quilt pattern
Name of owner
Name of creator or quilter
Size of quilt
Any extra information you might like to share (optional)

RHQG MINUTES

RHQG Meeting Minutes, August 8, 2011

On August 8, 2011, the River Heritage Quilt Guild meeting was called to order by Vice President Lynnore Meyer at the Cape Girardeau Library with 57 members, 1 new member and 7 guests attending.

A motion to approve last month's minutes was made by Maxine Hume and seconded by Kay Kenner.

Madeline Gieselman reported the State Retreat is October 14-16 at Lake of the Ozarks. She had a brochure available for anyone interested in attending and reported it is cheaper to attend if you are a member of the State Guild.

Community Projects Committee reported they have 10 quilts that need to be bound.

Nominating Committee was selected: new member-Linda Gast, continuing member -Joycelyn Kasten, board member- Madeline Gieselman.

Block of the Month Committee person, Joan Meyer, had no blocks turned in for this month. New blocks were given.

Special Events chair, Mary Green, announced a workshop on the One Block Wonder with Marsha Bray for Saturday, September 24th from 9:30—4:30 at the Cape Girardeau Library. It is one day only.

Mary Green also noted the yearly picnic will be the next guild meeting in September beginning at 6:00 at the Cape County Park Pavilion #20. Fried chicken will be provided and each member is to bring a dish. Games are being planned for this fun event.

Two quilt shows announced: Sikeston Quilt Show August 13-14 and “Not Your Grandmother's Block Party” quilt show in Kansas City on September 23-24.

Madeline Gieselman reported recipes are still needed for the guild's new cookbook. Forms are on-line and on the sign-in table.

Darla Snider reported quilts are still needed for the Glenn House Open House in September. The quilts can be old, new, and of any theme. Put your name, the name of the quilt, and a brief story about the quilt on it. These may be turned in to Darla.

Patti Lessman announced her church is in need of odds and ends sewing pieces.

Nancy Bishop announced a quilt retreat at Shadow Rest in Cape on Oct. 12-15. It costs $125. Spots are available, if interested.

Birthdays for August: Mary Belle Dohogne, Betty Meyer, Cindy Spaeth, Kimberly Stueve, Marie Todd, Carolyn Andrews, Ravan Simms. Each received a fat quarter and a cup of Hershey Kisses.

Drawings: Name Tag—Karla Keifner; Door Prize—Sandy Hinton; Fat Quarters (30)—Joyce Holloway; Cash for Stash ($30)—Betty Winter.

Show and Tell: Linda Tansil, Sandy Hinton, Ellen Coffman, Velda Keister 2 (1 Golden Scissors Award), Merle Deneke, Lois Rose, Vonda Slinkard, and Mary Green.

Program: Our own quilter, Lynne Taylor, gave a brief history of how she became an award winning quilter. In an effort to complete her Masters in Art degree a ‘few’ years ago she chose to demonstrate her artistic ability using quilting as her medium. From that first learning experience she has gone on to compete in quilt shows and WIN!!! We are so proud of Lynne.

Respectfully submitted,
Betty Meyer, Secretary

Comfort Quilts:

The Community Projects committee gave a comfort quilt to Nancy East who lost her husband this spring. Others in the guild gave a quilt to Lynne Taylor at the loss of her grandmother, quilt guild member Frieda Lorenz.
